Testimonials:

"They are easy to work with and true professionals. They assisted us with obtaining qualified Workday consultants to assist us with overflow projects and system enhancements/ functionality. They are well-connected and can quickly evaluate people and identify candidates that meet our needs – with timely followup. I highly recommend them."

– Large Healthcare Organization

"Finding qualified Workday consultants quickly can be a challenge. Fortunately, there are an increasing number of service providers looking to fill this void. I was fortunate to work with them recently when I needed two Workday consultants to backfill our internal team. Both projects required seasoned consultants who could come in and immediately contribute They were able to provide a number of qualified consultants. I also appreciated their professional and consultative approach."

– Global Marketing Organization

"They recently assisted me with quickly obtaining highly skilled Workday consultants to deliver solutions for a portfolio of enhancement initiatives. They are attentive to detail and well connected. My internal clients are thrilled with the knowledge and experience that these consultants bring to the table. I highly recommend working with them to assist you with your Workday consulting needs."
